

The Annual Painting of the 'M'!

- Who: All Freshmen, and any one else who would like to climb the mountain. (We could also use some parent volunteers to help climb the mountain or to prepare and serve food to the participants on their return.)
- When: Thursday August 12, 2010, 11:50am – 3:00 pm
- Where: Meet in the gym after lunch, then hike up to the 'M' on Cerro San Luis Mountain, and back to campus.
- Why: To have fun with new classmates and continue an MCP Tradition!
- What to Wear: Old shirt, old shorts or long pants, comfortable climbing or athletic shoes with good traction, socks, gloves. Whatever you wear will get paint on it, so be selective!
(STUDENTS WILL NEED TO WEAR SCHOOL CLOTHES FOR BEGINNING OF DAY AND THEN CHANGE AT LUNCH INTO HIKING GEAR)
- Warning: This is a rigorous hike. If your son or daughter has a medical condition that would keep them out of PE class or out of hiking in the hills please email John Krossa and we will try to come up with an alternative activity.
- What to bring: All students should a bring water bottle, a paintbrush or a roller, towel, and a old backpack to carry items.
If you have Clippers, a broom, a shovel, a rebar cutter, or Exterior White latex paint that you could bring please email John Krossa at jkrossa@missionprep.org

Come join the fun and tradition of painting the 'M' on August 12th.

Faculty and parents supervise the event, with Student Council and ASB!

...Warning: There is poison oak, if you wear shorts or short sleeve shirt you have a higher risk of getting it.

We will have a hose on the field to wash off with after the climb. Bring a towel.
